The Pension Fund Regulations provide for the following beneficiaries, in the order of priority listed, for payment of a lump-sum death benefit:

1. Spouse/life partner and children who are entitled to a survivor's pension in accordance with Art. 24 and 25 of the Pension Fund Regulations, or natural persons who were significantly supported by the insured person at the time of the latter's death
2. Children who are no longer entitled to a survivor's pension pursuant to Art. 25 of the Pension Regulations,
3. parents,
4. siblings.

This order of priority cannot be departed from. Persons from a particular group of persons are only eligible if there are no beneficiaries from a preceding group of persons. However, the insured person has the option of providing for the lump-sum death benefit, to be divided up individually in the event of there being multiple entitled persons within a group of beneficiaries.
