Term of Office and Election of Substitute

The term of office is three years. Unless the Alvoso Pension Fund is notified to the contrary, the term of office shall be tacitly extended after its expiry. The election of a new member terminates the term of office of the previous member.

Termination of the employment contract results in exit from the Pension Fund Commission. In this case, a new member must be elected and the Alvoso Pension Fund must be notified immediately, using a new "Election of Pension Fund Commission" form.

The procedure for the election and the tasks of the Pension Fund Commission are defined in the Pension Fund Regulations. The most recent pension regulations of the Alvoso Pension Fund apply.
